

PORTAGE HILL ART GALLERY
PRESENTS:
Painters Who Pot / Potters Who Paint
August 1st - August 26th
Opening August 5: 7-9 PM

Entry Requirements:

Open to any artist who works both as a clay artist and painter. Throughout the history of art many painters have discovered the pleasure of working with clay. These have included many eminent artists from the past including Picasso, Vlaminck, Gauguin, Matisse, and Jackson Pollock. This is a contemporary National Juried Show of current artists who work in both of these mediums. Each accepted artist is expected to show both clay work and painting.

Submission Guidelines:

Submit up to two entries (2 sets of one painting and one pot each) mailed on a CD labeled with the titles and your name

All work must be available for the duration of the show

All works must be ready to hang on the wall or be ready to be placed on a pedestal.

Size restrictions: Clay pieces must be no larger than 16" h x 12 w x 12 d. Paintings are to be no larger than 16" x 20".

Artists will be responsible for the cost of shipping both for delivery and return. Pieces may also be hand delivered during the dates listed below.

All work must be for sale. Portage Hill Art Gallery will retain 40% of the retail sale price. $20 fee per entry of both mediums
